Rough Camping Agreement Form

Rough Camping at the Riceville Fair is returning once again! Campsites are limited and assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. All campers must complete and sign this Rough Camping Agreement Form and submit full payment prior to arriving on the Fairgrounds. Campers must check in at the Fair Office to retrieve their camping pass before parking or setting up. While the camping area may be monitored by Fair Security, campers are responsible for their own belongings, vehicles, trailers, and equipment. The Riceville Agricultural Society assumes no responsibility for lost, stolen, or damaged property. We thank all campers for respecting the rules, volunteers, fellow campers, and Fair property throughout their stay.

I, _____ request a rough camping location at the Riceville Fair Grounds from August 28th to August 30th, 2026.

Rules and Regulations:

- Advanced registration is available by submitting the registration form and payment online.
- A completed and signed Rough Camping Agreement Form, along with full payment, must be received and confirmed prior to arriving on the Fairgrounds or parking any camper, trailer, or tent.
- The camping fee is $70.00 per camper plus weekend admission per person. Additional occupants of the camper, trailer, or tent must pay admission to enter the Fairgrounds.
- Camping passes must be picked up at the Fair Office (or contact Tobias by phone) prior to entering the rough camping area or parking any trailer on the Fairgrounds.
- Camping passes must be displayed on the camper door AT ALL TIMES.
- There will be no admittance to the campground before Thursday at 4:00 PM.
- Campsites are first-come, first-served. Campers who arrive earlier must not be disrupted.
- Campers must vacate the grounds by Monday following the fair unless otherwise approved by the Riceville Agricultural Society.
- Campers are responsible for leaving their site clean and in the same condition it was found, including proper garbage disposal.
- Campers are responsible for the conduct and actions of all occupants staying at their campsite.
- Campers must respect other campers, trailers, Fair volunteers, Society members, and Fair property at all times.
- Campers must not disrupt the setup, layout, or operation of Fair events or activities in the vicinity of their campsite, including parade routes and event staging areas.
- Generators operated between 11:00 PM and 7:00 AM must be of the silent type (low noise) out of respect for fellow campers and nearby Fair operations.
- No campfires, gas fires, charcoal fires, propane fire tables, candles, fireworks, or open flames of any kind are permitted on the camping grounds.
- No motorized recreational vehicles, including ATVs, side-by-sides, dirt bikes, golf carts, scooters, minibikes, or similar motorized transportation devices, are permitted in the rough camping area or on the Fairgrounds unless authorized by the Riceville Agricultural Society.
- Rough camping areas may be monitored by Fair security from Friday through Sunday morning; however, campers remain solely responsible for the security of their own belongings, vehicles, trailers, and equipment.
- The Riceville Agricultural Society is not responsible for any lost, stolen, or damaged property at any time.
- There is zero tolerance for failure to follow the campground rules, inappropriate behaviour, excessive disturbances, vandalism, unsafe conduct, or disrespect toward volunteers, staff, or other campers.
- Members or representatives of the Riceville Agricultural Society reserve the right to ask any camper or occupant to leave the campground or Fairgrounds at any time, for any reason deemed necessary.
- Camping trailers, vehicles, or equipment may be removed or towed at the owner's expense if the rules and regulations are not followed.
- As this is rough camping (located on active Fairgrounds) and not a traditional campground, limited amenities may be available. Campers are responsible for bringing any supplies or equipment they may require during their stay.

I, _____ hereby agree to the rules and regulations of the Riceville Agricultural Society and accept the responsibility of the occupants at my site and during our stay. Should I break the terms and agreements, I understand that I will be asked to leave and not be invited to camp in the future.
